MARKET OVERVIEW

India is the world’s largest democracy and according to UN estimates, its population is expected to overtake China’s in 2028 to become the world’s most populous nation.

India is the 18th largest export market for U.S. goods. India’s economy is projected to have grown 7.2% from 2014-15 and this growth is expected to continue through 2015-16.

Foreign companies operating in India emphasize that success requires a long-term planning horizon and a state-by-state strategy to adapt to the complexity and diversity of India’s markets.

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

“Out of the 12 meetings which were arranged, 11 meetings were right on the mark as potential suppliers to [our company]. From my perspective, meeting these companies face to face allowed [our company] to obtain information which would not have been known otherwise. I see potential for working with a number of these companies. The logistics of the trip and the constant follow up by VEDP made my experience in India a good one. I see more involvement with VEDP in the future.” - Trade Mission to India, 2013

“Overall, a very positive experience. We went in expecting nothing and walked away with several prospects, partners and even a few proposals. I would recommend these Trade Missions to other VA companies easily.” - Trade Mission to India, 2011
