

TRADE SHOW

Medica 2023

November 13–16, 2023 | Duesseldorf, Germany

Registration Deadline | September 1, 2023

Following the successful 2022 edition, MEDICA will return to Dusseldorf in 2023. The world's leading medical trade fair, co-located with COMPAMED, the medical technology supplier fair, will bring together numerous international industry members under one roof.

The trade show will consist of five medical technology segments and will provide participants with an unmatched business platform for establishing solid connections with regular and new clients, investors, and manufacturers within the niche. Exhibitors will display the newest medical products and solutions, discuss the latest trends, and share valuable insights on essential industry topics.

Medica 2023 takes place in Duesseldorf, Germany at Messe Duesseldorf.

This event was very good and helped add additional exposure for us in the European market. The VEDP team was excellent and provided help on any requests that we had during the Medica exhibition.
