

TRADE SHOW

Eurosatory 2026

June 15–19, 2026 | Paris, France

Registration Deadline | March 6, 2026

Eurosatory, the biennial international land and air defense and security exhibition, brings together international exhibitors, visitors, and journalists, and offers a wide array of services to help them develop their commercial opportunities. Eurosatory highlights exhibitors' visibility through life-size presentations of equipment, weapons systems, and technologies, as well as through live demonstrations, enabling exhibitors to promote their products to both potential partners and the general public. This event serves as an international forum for ideas, supporting the exchange of views about the evolution of the defense and security industry between all the players of the domains.

“

We experienced excellent results with interest from target markets. Very pleased with our participation as part of the Virginia delegation. We look forward to next year.
